

Zack lived in a shack by the railroad Track

by Mark Lawrence
&
Roderick Fong

Jack lived in a shack...

© 2021

3

... by the railroad
track,

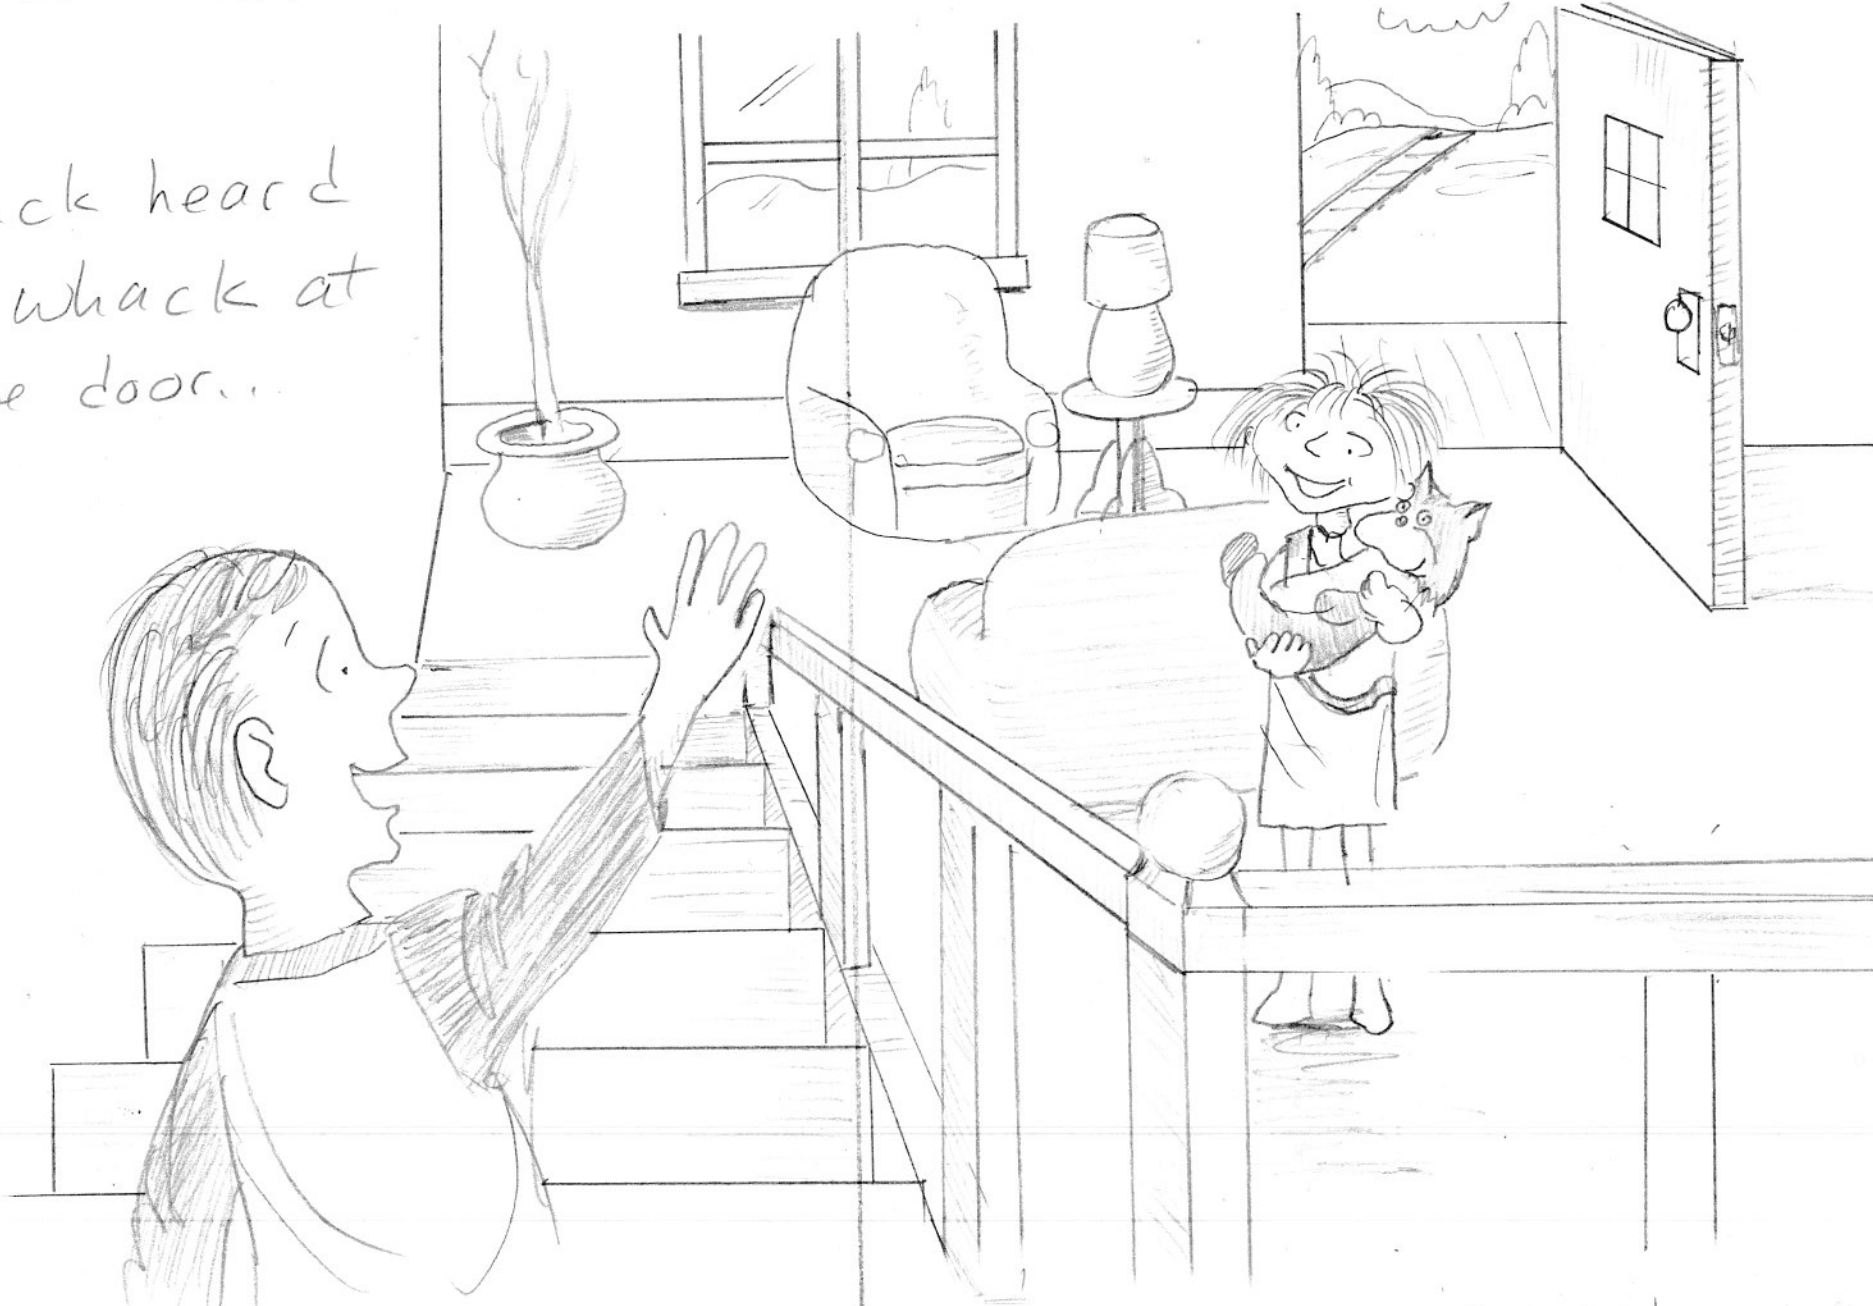

... with his brother Zack,
a duck named Quack...

... and a yak
named Dak.
Zack had a dog named Mack,

who was black,
with a shiny
white back.

Zack heard a whack at the door...

It was their sister, Lilac,
with her black cat,
Knicknack.

"You're just in time for snacks," said Jack.

Knicknack then ...

(10)

left...

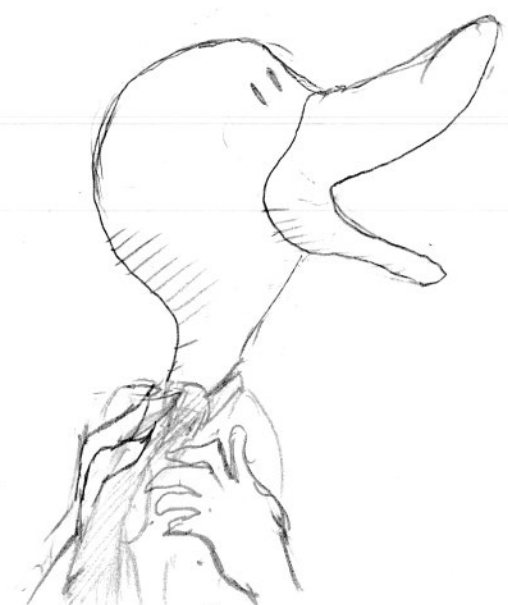

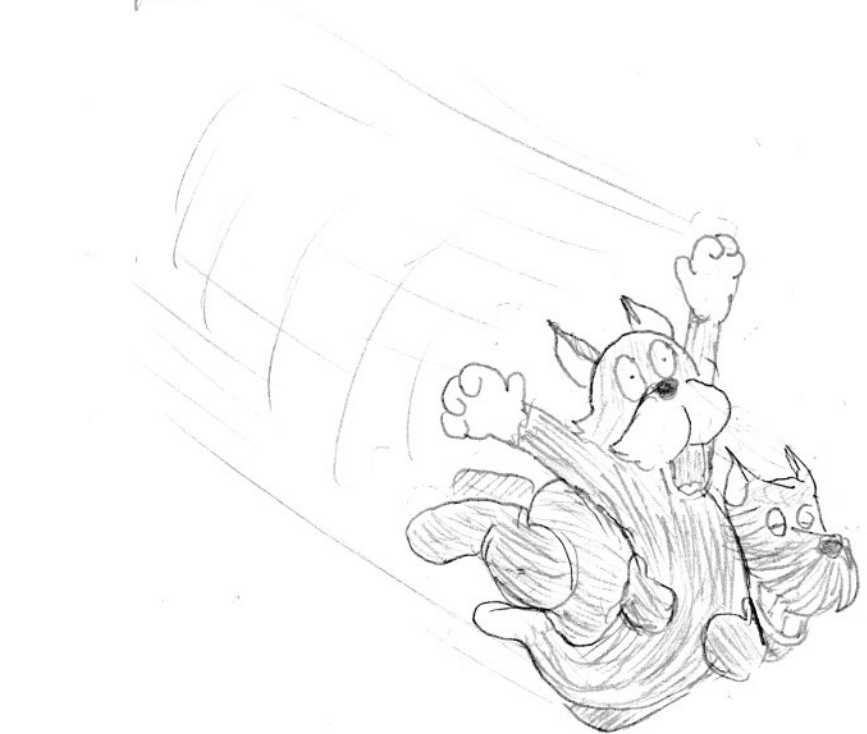

(11)

... and tried to sneak up on Quack.

(12)

But, Mack attacked Knicknack.

(13)

Mack knocked Knicknack into the shack.

(4)

Knicknack jumped around the shack
to get away from Mack.

(5)

11

Knicknack then landed on a rack, with dishes that were stacked.

16

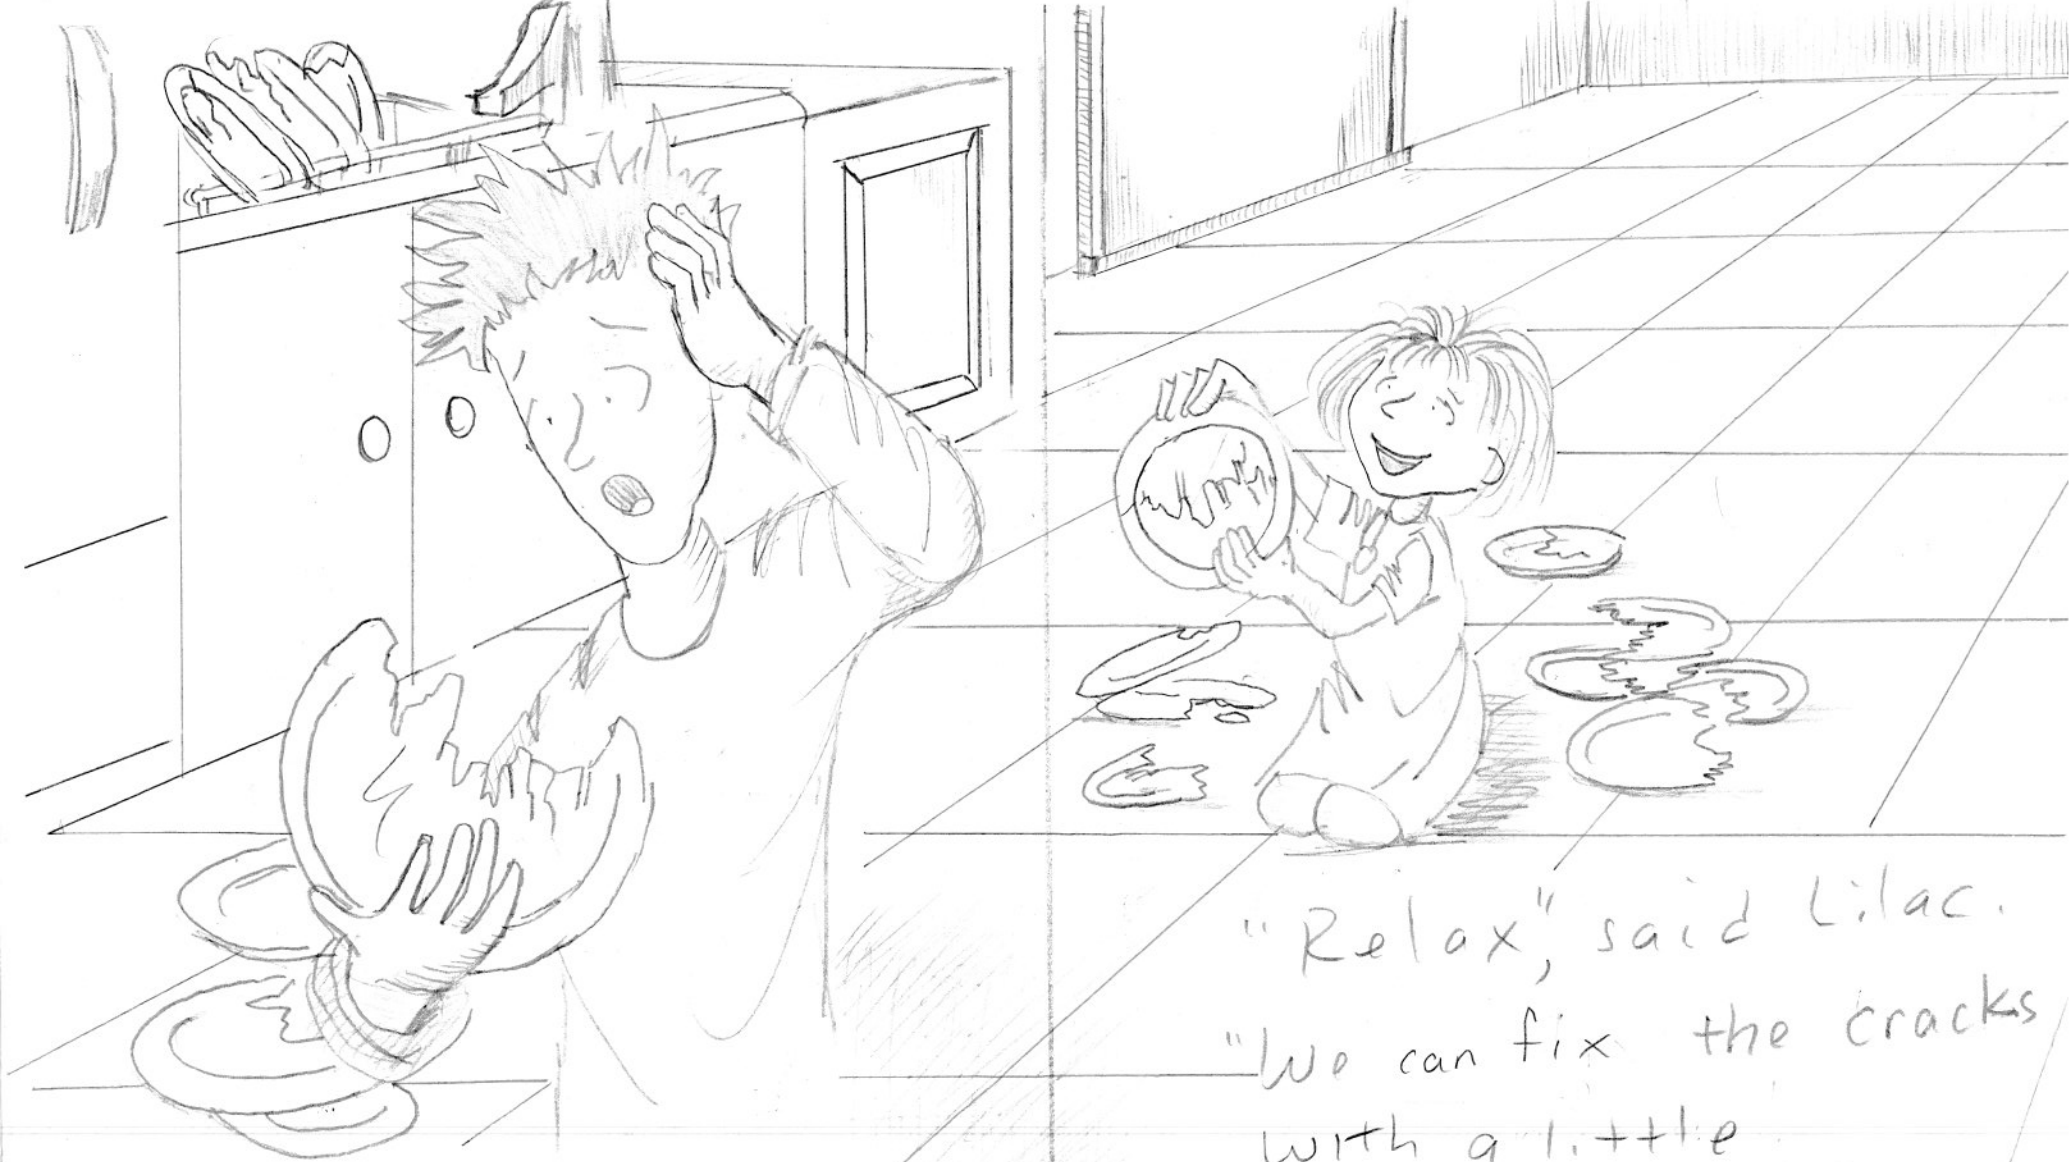

SNACK!

91

The dishes were cracked!

17

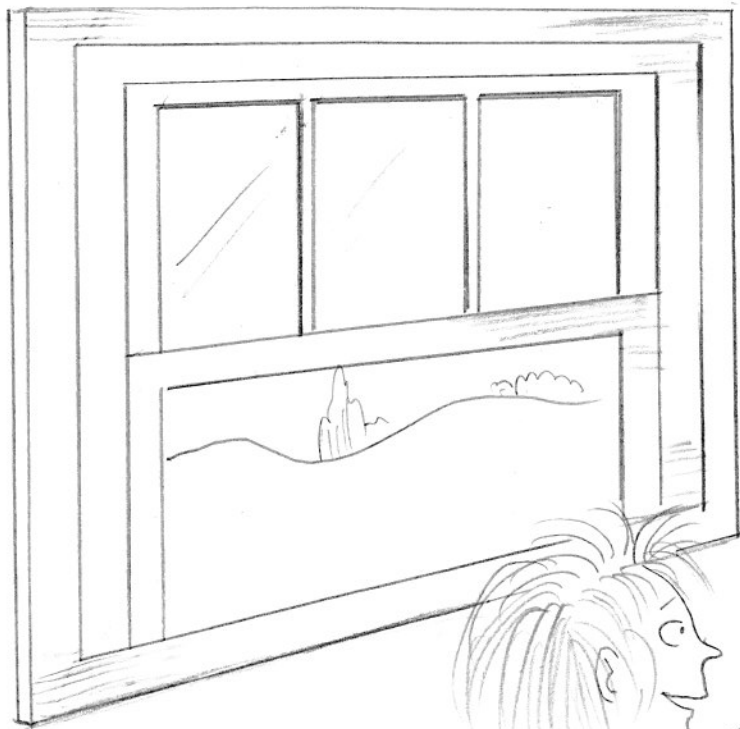

"How will we eat our snacks, now that it's dishes we lack?" asked Jack.

(18)

"Relax," said Lilac.
"We can fix the cracks with a little shellac!"

(19)

(20)

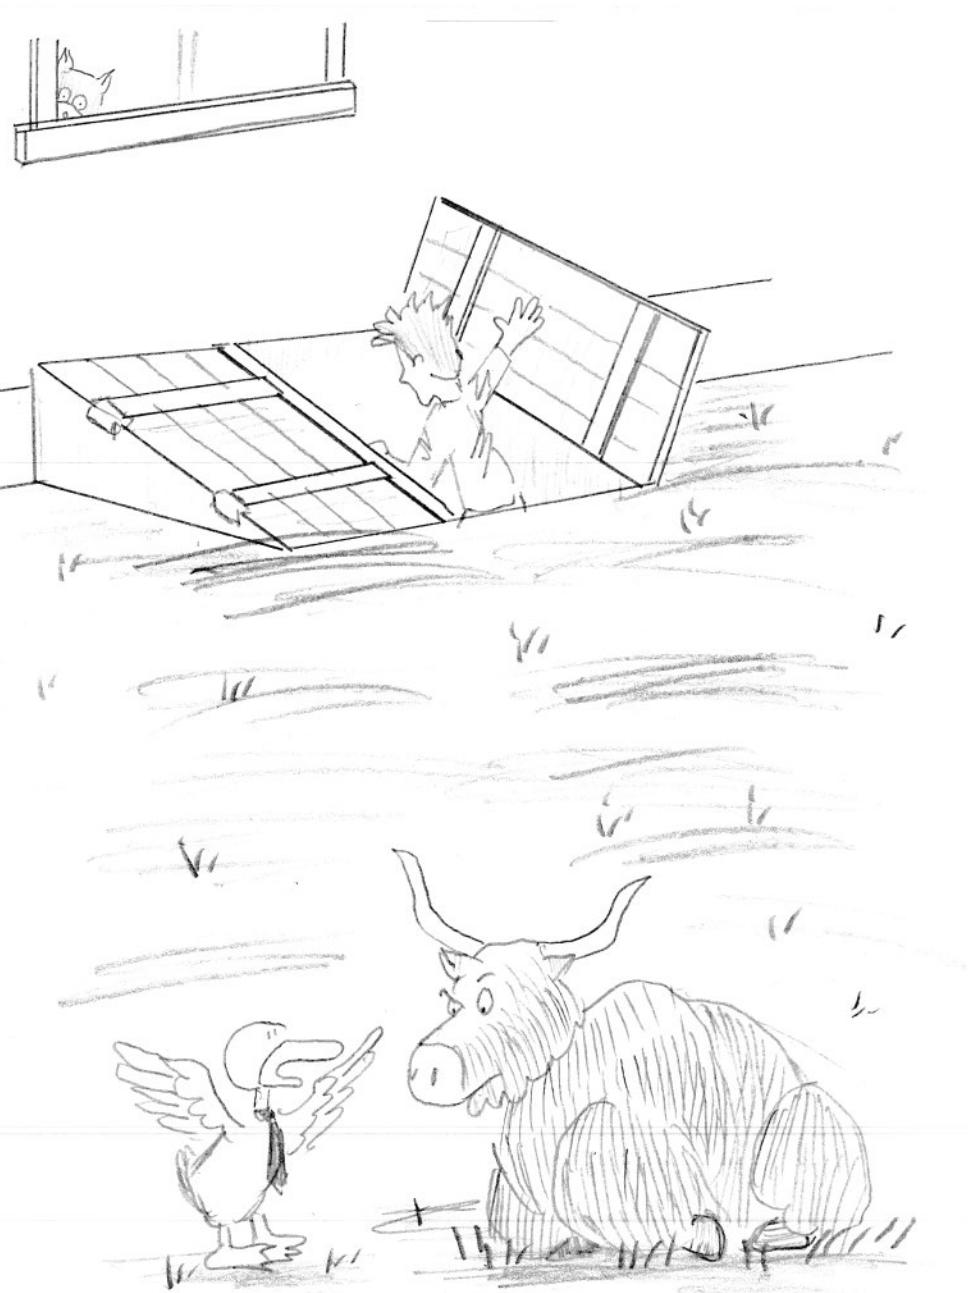

"No. Glue! Not
shellac," said Jack.
"There's some in the basement,
under the shack."

(21)

So, off went Jack,
to the basement under
the shack.
Lilac then played with Mack.

(22)

While Quack quacked at Dak.

(23)

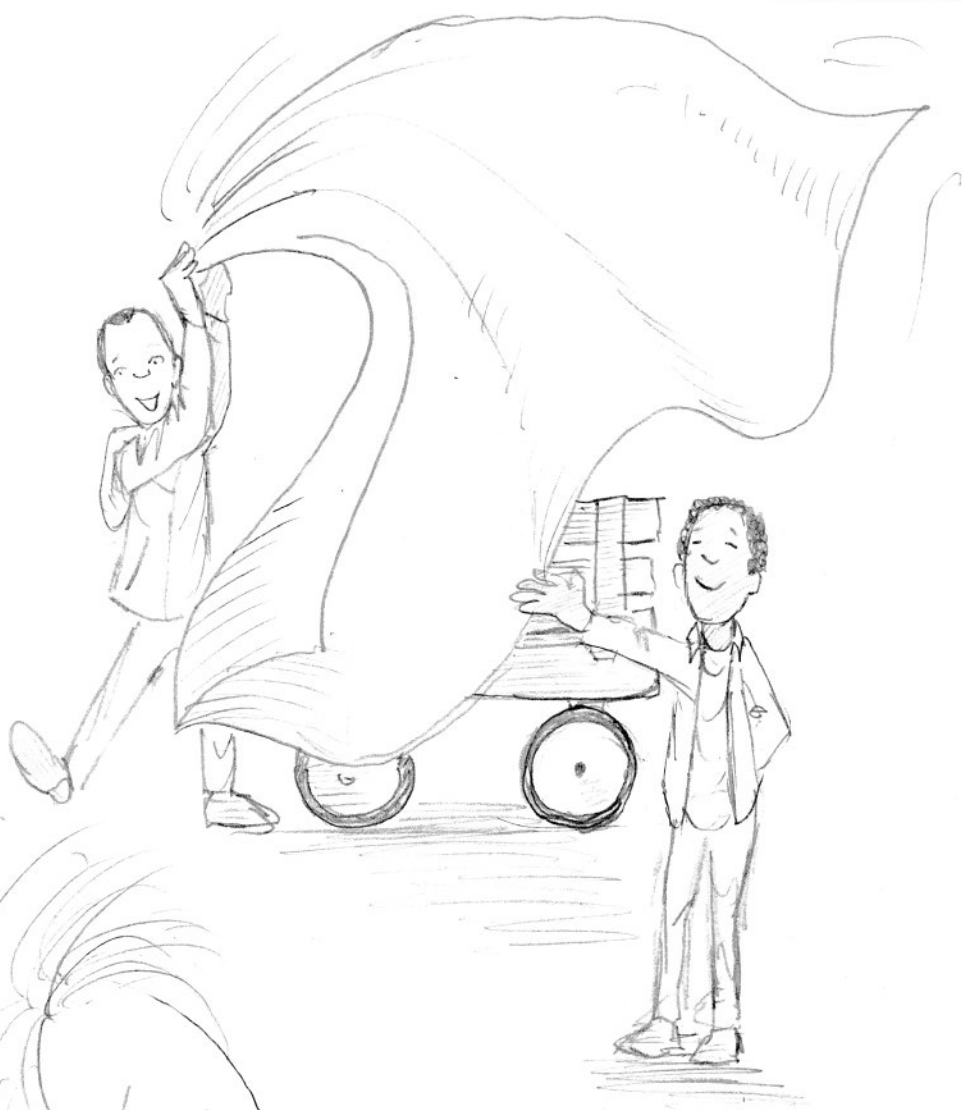

24

Just then, Kim came by,
with her brothers, Jim and Tim

25

"Can anyone use ..."

26

"... some extra dishes?"

27

27

Jack looked at Lilac.

Lilac looked at Jack.

... And they all laughed.

"Now we can eat
our snacks," said
Zack to the pack.

And they did.